INSTRUCTED BY:

Denise Hosni

DevaCurl Educator & Master Curl Specialist

For over a decade, I sculpted hair in salons before answering the call of academia in 2008. Trading scissors for textbooks, I ventured back to university, emerging with a BA in education. Since 2008, I've been shaping minds and futures in the classroom. During this journey, I found a new passion – curls.

Through dedicated training and practice, I've become a Curl Educator, sharing my knowledge with fellow stylists eager to master the art of curly hair.

As for what lies ahead? Well, the future's a mystery, but one thing's certain – I'm committed to continuous growth and development. Whether I'm behind the chair or at the front of the class, I'm here to inspire and empower.
